

PPMH BOOSTER SESSION

Black Fatherhood: Cultural Attunement and Strengths-Based Approaches to Black Father Engagement

STRONG FATHERS.
STRONG FAMILIES.
STRONGER COMMUNITIES.

Leave with practical strategies you can use immediately
with families!

Are you looking for more effective ways to engage Black fathers and families in your work?

Join us for an interactive training focused on recognizing strengths, building authentic connections, and increasing father engagement through culturally attuned practices.

IN THIS TRAINING, YOU WILL EXPLORE:

Common barriers and opportunities in father engagement

Strengths-based approaches that honor Black fatherhood

Strategies to foster trust, inclusion, and meaningful participation

Practical tools you can immediately apply in your work with families

IDEAL FOR:

- ✓ Mental health clinicians
- ✓ Home visitors
- ✓ Family support providers
- ✓ Case managers
- ✓ Child welfare professionals
- ✓ Anyone working with fathers and families

JUNE 24, 2026

9:00 AM – 11:00 AM

VIRTUAL TRAINING VIA MICROSOFT TEAMS

PRESENTED BY:

Lynette Lively-Cookson, PsyD
Jared Morgan, LCSW

REGISTER TODAY!

Space is limited!

REGISTER HERE:

<https://forms.cloud.microsoft/g/xm1AxPDZm1>

We look forward to your participation!

QUESTIONS?

IPARENT@dmh.lacounty.gov

PPMH IN COLLABORATION WITH:

LOVE-DAD.ORG